avoid a cut of profits, provided that the circumstances resulting in such increase did not occur prior to contracting, and were not foreseeable at that time by the INBOUND Services. To be valid, the notice of such increase must be given in writing, stating the relevant cost items, the time and allocation scheme of reference for such increase, and the respective calculation method.

(3) A price increase is admissible only in the event of increased costs, duties and taxes for services, and of exchange rates they were based on, and such claim has to be stated by the 20th day before the performance of services.

a) In case transportation costs as in effect at the time of contracting are increased – e.g. fuel cost – INBOUND Services may adjust the travel price.

b) In the event of an increase of taxes and duties in effect at the time of contracting, which are essential for, and included in, the agreed scope of services, INBOUND Services may increase the prorated amount accordingly.

c) In case of altered exchange rates after contracting, INBOUND Services may increase the total price by the amount the price of the service has increased for INBOUND Services.

(4) INBOUND Services shall inform Client immediately about the alterations contemplated in sec. 1 to 3. In the event of a substantial alteration of essential services, including the price, Client is entitled to withdraw from the contract free of charge. In case of changes in terms of sec. 1, Client is entitled to request a service of at least the same value, instead of a withdrawal, if INBOUND Services is able to offer such to Client without additional cost. Client must exercise such right toward INBOUND Services immediately upon receipt of the notification regarding the altered service.

Art. 6 Withdrawal of Client before beginning of Service, Cancellation Costs

(1) Client may withdraw from the contract at any time prior to the execution of services. The withdrawal shall be declared toward INBOUND Services in writing.

(2) In the event Client withdraws prior to execution, or declines the acceptance of services, INBOUND Services is not entitled to claim the agreed remuneration. Instead, INBOUND Services may claim a reasonable compensation of provisions and expenses incurred so far – depending on the respective total price – unless Client is liable for such withdrawal, or the cause is an act of force majeure.

(3) INBOUND Services took into account a lump-sum compensation claim, prorated in time – i.e. depending on the closeness of the time of withdrawal to the agreed beginning of services and the agreed price – with an allowance for saved expenses and a different use of services, as the case may be. The lump-sum cancellation rates and times may differ, depending on the service, and shall be notified to Client for each individual case in the Confirmation.

(4) INBOUND Services reserves the right to claim a compensation higher than the above lump sum in specific cases, provided that INBOUND Services proves that it has incurred much higher expenses than covered by the applicable lump sum. In such instances, INBOUND Services is obligated to totalize and document such compensation, taking into account, if pertinent, any saved expenses and different use of services.

(5) In case of a partial cancellation, the Parties shall agree on a new price, in consideration of their mutual interests and opportunities. If such agreement cannot be reached, the cancellation is deemed as a total cancellation, and the cancellation fee pursuant to sec. 3 applied.

(6) The Client is at liberty to prove that the loss to INBOUND Services incurred by such cancellation was nil or substantially lower than the lump sums under sec. 3, as specified in the Confirmation.

Art. 7 Force Majeur

Either party may terminate its performance obligations without liability to the extent its performance is affected by acts or occurrences beyond its control that makes it impossible for INBOUND Services to provide the services specified herein.

The acts or occurrences that trigger the right of either party to terminate the contract under the terms of this section include, but are not limited to: acts of God, war, government regulation (including governmental advisories, quarantines and curfews), natural disaster, fire, strikes or other labor disputes, curtailment or disruption of transportation, civil disorder, terrorism and responses thereto, an act or occurrence creating a significant risk to the participants' health or safety (as determined by both parties), or affecting a party's performance.

The contract may be terminated without liability for any one of such reasons by written notice from one party to the other within ten (10) days from the act or occurrence of Force Majeure. If the Program is scheduled for less than ten (10) days from the Force Majeure event, notice must be received in writing within twenty-four (24) hours from the act or occurrence of Force Majeure.

Should this Agreement be terminated according to the terms in this Section, INBOUND Services will return to Client any payments previously paid by Client to INBOUND Services, less all of the following amounts which INBOUND Services shall be entitled to retain: any non-recoverable and other out-of-pocket costs INBOUND Services has paid or is obligated to pay to INBOUND Services' vendors, suppliers and subcontractors, and any costs (including labor) for which INBOUND Services has otherwise incurred an obligation to pay, as of the time of the Force Majeure Termination, so long as such direct and/or indirect costs are supported by reasonable documentation. In addition, the work of INBOUND Services until the time of the Force Majeure and needed beyond will be charged.

INBOUND Services shall additionally not be liable for delays due to causes beyond its reasonable control.

Art. 8 Alteration and Modification

Subsequent to the date of the Confirmation, it may be necessary for Client to make certain modifications to the Confirmation then in effect. Client will advise INBOUND Services of any modifications or corrections to the contracted services in writing.

In the event INBOUND Services is able to accommodate such requested modifications, INBOUND Services will notify Client of the change in price and shall prepare a new Confirmation, which shall supersede the previous Confirmation then in effect. In the event INBOUND Services is unable to accommodate Client's requested modifications, or in the event Client does not approve the prices and terms set forth in the revised Confirmation, Client and INBOUND Services shall continue to remain obligated to perform their respective obligations pursuant to the previous Confirmation in effect.

Art. 9 Rescission in case of shortfall of minimum participants

In case of failure to reach a minimum number of participants, INBOUND Services creates a new offer to the Client on the current number of participants or can withdraw from the contract, if the respective confirmation specifies a minimum number of participants. In this case INBOUND Services charges the cancellation costs of the customer according to § 6.

Art. 10 Unclaimed Services

In case Client respectively his travelers do not make use of particular services properly offered for reasons, which are to be ascribed to Client or these participants, they have no claim for a compensation of the prorated price. INBOUND Services shall endeavor to compensate expenses saved at the service providers. However, such obligation shall not apply to insignificant services, or is excluded because of regulatory provisions or orders from the authorities.

- (2) INBOUND Services may terminate the contract without notice in the event that individual participants seriously disturb the event despite a warning by INBOUND Services, or misbehave in such manner, which justifies an immediate rescission of the contract. In the event of a termination by INBOUND Services, INBOUND Services is still entitled to the payment of the price, to be set off against saved expenses and such benefits as obtained from a different use of unclaimed services, including any amounts credited by the service providers.

Art. 12 Client's Obligations to notify and co-operate

- (1) Client shall inform INBOUND Services if he did not receive the necessary documents within the period specified by INBOUND Services. Client is obligated to check on the accuracy and completeness of the travel documents received, in particular their compliance with the booking. In case Client is liable for non-compliance with this obligation, he shall bear co-liability for any loss thus incurred (art. 254 BGB – German Civil Code).
- (2) It is incumbent on Client to notify INBOUND Services of any defects/deficiencies discovered. If he fails to do so by negligence, the price shall not be reduced. The notification of defects is not subject to a specific form but it is recommended it be made in writing. Such notification is unnecessary if fruitless for obvious or unacceptable for other reasons, or INBOUND Services must have been well aware of the defect anyway.
- (3) Prior to the execution of services, Client shall be provided with an emergency phone number or other data for immediate contact with INBOUND Services. Client is obligated to forward the contact data to the responsible participants.
- (4) Client shall inform participants on their obligation to pay themselves for any extra services at site not contained in the Confirmation of INBOUND Services, such as e.g. visitor's tax, other local levies, and costs of Pay-Tv, minibar or parking fees. INBOUND Services will not bear any of these costs.
- (5) Furthermore, Client shall inform participants on guarantees by credit card or cash deposits local service providers may require to be made. INBOUND Services shall inform Client in due time of such requirements.

Art. 13 Exclusion of Claims, Statute of Limitation

- (1) Claims based on deficient services shall be stated by Client toward INBOUND Services within one week following the scheduled rendering of such service.

- (2) INBOUND Services shall also be liable for losses caused by negligence to the extent they result from a violation of rights to be granted by Client in line with the content and purpose of the contract, and/or by a breach of duties required in the first place for the proper implementation of the contract, on which Client does, and may, normally rely (cardinal

(3) Client shall be entitled to setoff only in the event his counter-claims are established by final judgement, or uncontested by INBOUND Services, or in close reciprocal connection with INBOUND Services' claim. (4) Client is not entitled to assign his claims against INBOUND Services hereunder without the consent of the latter.

(5) Any invalidity of individual regulations hereof shall not result in the invalidity of the contract as a whole.
